TULSA UNDERGRADUATE
RESEARCH CHALLENGE (TURC)

ACCORDING TO 2009 GRADUATE KATE SWENSON, “TU is an environment that makes it possible for you to do more.” She should know. Using a TURC grant, she got a head start on graduate-level research. “We looked at how nano-dot particles can be used to sense things like bacteria or anthrax,” she explains. Now attending Yale Law School, Kate recalls that TU encourages students to “explore completely different schools of thought” on a daily basis. “You need to know policy as well as science if you hope to change things,” she says, “That’s what I plan to do.”

THINKINSPIRED

AT TU, YOU DON'T JUST SEE WHAT THE FUTURE HOLDS.
You hold it in your hands.

Whether you enroll in the Henry Kendall College of Arts and Sciences, the Collins College of Business or the College of Engineering and Natural Sciences – or, like many students, combine majors from two or more of TU's three colleges – you'll be inspired to shape your interests into success-oriented educational goals.

Your professors—internationally recognized experts in everything from literary criticism and international business to cyber security and petroleum engineering – will collaborate with you and your advisors to shape a future that is right for you.

“TU advising is so personalized that, in addition to my three assigned advisors — pre-med, academic and research — my professors can advise me on a daily basis.”

BEN QUICK

B.S. BIOCHEMISTRY, PRAIRIE VILLAGE, KS

PERSONAL. BEST.

Encouraged to combine majors, minors, concentrations within majors and certificates into personalized academic programs, many TU students pursue highly individualized degree plans geared to their specific interests and professional goals.

EXAMPLES OF DOUBLE AND TRIPLE MAJORS

LEARN FROM EXPERT FACULTY

At TU, classes are taught by scholars and researchers who attract international recognition and millions of dollars in research grants. With an average class size of just 19, you'll study shoulder to shoulder with these inspiring teachers — people you get to know in and out of class, during office hours, at hosted events, by email and cell phone.

RECOGNIZED FOR RESULTS

One of 150 colleges and universities included in Colleges of Distinction, TU is recognized for engaged students, great teaching, a vibrant campus community and successful graduates.

NEW MAJORS COMBINE SKILLS

Globally recognized for petroleum engineering and energy management, TU programs in international business and language, environmental policy, arts management and others span disciplines to prepare students for emerging careers.

CO-CURRICULAR TRANSCRIPT

The TU co-curricular transcript adds leadership and character dimensions to your academic profile — and an edge when vying for employment, graduate school admission and scholarships.

SPIRITED COMMUNITY

Founded in 1894 by the Presbyterian Church, TU is an independent institution affiliated with the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) through a covenant expressing the shared ideals of intellectual, moral and spiritual growth, academic freedom and community service. With an international student body representing virtually every faith, TU celebrates religious life through clubs and organizations, religious observations and cultural exchange. Sharp Chapel is the center of religious activity and spiritual development for the TU community.

In support of service

Community involvement plays a key role in inspiring a sense of service in TU students. TU received a $40 million grant from the George Kaiser Family Foundation to support, among other things, a new Student Volunteer Center on campus and a new non-profit management program in the Collins College of Business.

THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX

WHY TAKE A TRADITIONAL PATH when your forward thinking ideas can lead you straight to the extraordinary at TU?

Invention, discovery, research – call it what you will, the desire to explore an original idea is the sign of a mind eager to have an impact on the world. Undergraduate research is a fact of daily life at TU; even as an incoming freshman, you can participate in the Tulsa Undergraduate Research Challenge (TURC), which funds original, community oriented research projects.

At TU, you'll be encouraged to think outside the box, and you'll pursue your forward thinking projects on campus, in Tulsa, across the country and around the world.

“TU is constantly changing and evolving to support students whose minds are on the future.”

PEOPLE WHO THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX often don't fit traditional molds. Consider Ashley Johnson, whose cross-disciplinary interests led her in seemingly opposite directions. Ashley's out-of-the-box approach combined a major in geology, which is in the College of Engineering and Natural Sciences, with a minor in anthropology in the Henry Kendall College of Arts and Sciences. "Advisors and faculty at TU really work with you to intelligently combine programs from separate colleges, as I did," she explains. "They helped me shape a program that was exactly right for me."

See the light

Original thinking and out-of-the-box ideas are encouraged at TU, where collaboration and original research lead to bright prospects for graduate school and career success.

A new, two-story, 12,000 square foot addition to McFarlin Library adds state-of-the-art computing rooms and study areas. Consolidating and modernizing numerous systems, the project blends seamlessly with the building's historic architecture.

SCHOLARS WELCOME

National scholarship and fellowship winners include Goldwaters, National Science Foundation, Trumans, DoD, Udalls, Fulbrights, British Marshalls and Phi Kappa Phi's. TU nurtures forward-thinking research and academic excellence.

TO CHINA

Michael Smith, a religion major and sociology minor, studied in Beijing, China on a prestigious Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship. The Congressionally funded program supports underrepresented study abroad students.

SUMMER OF SCIENCE

TU students work on summer projects at Los Alamos National Laboratory, one of the world's top scientific research facilities. Students are assigned a Los Alamos scientist or engineer as a mentor.

LEARNING BY RESEARCH

At TU, undergraduates are involved with faculty research in everything from the business of energy management, alternative energy and global engineering to sports science and athletic training, poetics and fine art conservation.

DO WELL, DO GOOD

Freshmen receiving TURC support take advanced courses, serve the community and conduct funded research with top professors. Many go on to win national scholarships.

FINDING FUNDING

The Office of Research & Sponsored Programs increases student success rates finding financial support for research and presentations at conferences.

HONORS PROGRAM

Explore the great questions about the human condition in stimulating classes based on the acclaimed Great Books program. Hone critical thinking and speaking skills that distinguish you as a well-rounded, well-educated human being.

THINK GLOBAL

The Center for Global Education links students to the wider world — and to financial assistance and scholarships that support such study abroad programs as language immersion, international internships and English-speaking study programs.

RUSSIAN CONNECTION

Co-founder of the business enterprise school in Zelenograd, Russia, TU is the first foreign-sponsored school to be accepted and funded by the Russian higher education authorities.

STUDENT RESEARCH COLLOQUIUM

Open to all kinds of student research, this annual event showcases presentations of original research, scholarship and papers or work submitted for class projects. Students also use the opportunity to propose research or scholarship ideas for review.

RESEARCH ACROSS DISCIPLINES

Undergraduate research topics include:

- Atonal music and Schoenberg
- Computer forensics
- Emily Dickinson
- Mathematics in music
- Non-polluting water purification
- Photojournalism
- Platonic dialog, ethics, moderns vs. ancients
- Utility deregulation – impact on low-income families in Oklahoma
- Wing morphology in crickets

FULBRIGHT SCHOLAR
NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLAR
PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLAR
VARSITY SCHOLAR LETTERMAN

THE BIGGER THE AMBITION, THE GREATER THE POSSIBILITIES.

Just ask Haden Snyder, TU graduate and MBA student: “As an undergraduate, I was encouraged to pursue any activity for which I had the energy and time,” he says. Haden wanted to combine a liberal arts education and a practical major. “TU had the perfect program, allowing me to major in German and International Business,” he continues. “I got to go to Transylvania to conduct research. I was even able to play Division I soccer – a lifelong dream – and still fit in a semester abroad.”

THINK OPPORTUNITY

STUDENTS AT TU GET THEIR HANDS DIRTY digging into subjects they love, and they get plenty of opportunities to think big.

Some of the most exciting things happening at TU are in groundbreaking cross-disciplinary studies that are opening doors to professional opportunity in such leading-edge fields as alternative energy, bioinformatics, international business and languages, sustainable engineering, arts management and cyber security.

From your first day at TU, every class and every project you undertake is matched with the opportunities it can create for success in graduate school, careers and life.

“My advice: explore North Campus freshman year! I didn’t find out about it until I was a sophomore. We have a wind tunnel!”

MARIA HOLLAND

B.S. MECHANICAL ENGINEERING, COON RAPIDS, MN

BIG BLUE IDEAS

In Studio Blue, a laboratory for entrepreneurial thinking and experimentation, TU business leaders of tomorrow practice brainstorming, presenting and collaborating to solve the latest marketing challenges.

CYBER CORPS

An emerging national leader in computer security education and research, TU’s pioneering Cyber Corps program prepares students for careers in information and computer security at the NSA, the FBI and in private industry.

MARKET ADVANTAGE

Art students in TU’s Third Floor Design get real world communications experience working with area nonprofit agencies. Graphic design and advertising students create ad campaigns, banner and billboard designs, logos and more.

SCHOLARLY READING

The Henry Kendall College of Arts and Sciences hosts literary journals including the James Joyce Quarterly, Nimrod International Journal of Poetry and Prose, Russian Studies in History and Tulsa Studies in Women’s Literature.

THE LANGUAGE OF 21ST CENTURY BUSINESS

A unique program in international business and languages combines a business major with an intensive foreign language curriculum equivalent to a language major.

CENTER FOR STUDENT ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Assess your academic skills, improve study habits and get affordable tutoring. Improve test preparation, study strategies, note taking, interaction with faculty and much more.

- Northwest Passage Tutoring Center — staffed by students from the Center for Student Academic Support.
- Computer-Assisted Writing Center — free personalized writing assistance for all TU students offered by English graduate students.
- Math Resource Center — free individual tutoring in math through Calculus II offered by graduate students, juniors and seniors.

MUSEUM QUALITY

TU manages city-owned Gilcrease Museum, which houses the world’s premier collection of art and artifacts from the American West. It’s a one-of-a-kind resource for students pursuing degrees in art history or arts management or certificate in museum studies.

EARN WHILE YOU LEARN

All students can apply for a paid internship — in some cases, as early as sophomore year. The Public Service Internship Program matches TU interns with area nonprofit service organizations.

TOP PAID

In 2009, PayScale, a market leader in global online compensation data, reported that TU graduates with a bachelor’s degree have the highest earning potential among Oklahoma colleges. With a starting median salary of over $43,000 and a mid-career salary of over $85,000, they are also among the top paid in the region.

GRADUATE READY

TU graduates are accepted into the nation’s top graduate schools, including:

THINK TULSA

TU'S THRIVING HOME CITY has a history of welcoming visionary thinkers. This bustling and beautiful city of 400,000 will welcome you, too.

Surrounded by stunning natural beauty, the city of Tulsa offers such cultural attractions as opera, ballet, fine art and some very cool nightclubs. Tulsa is a center of Art Deco architecture and 19th century art of the American West. Energy and high tech industries make Tulsa an extraordinary resource for internships, collaborative projects and ultimately, jobs.

“I knew Tulsa was big, but I had no idea how many opportunities it had to offer.”

STUDENT ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT AND TRIPLE MAJOR
Justin Harlan’s academic interests mix music and business. Besides discovering in Tulsa a great stage for performing, the singer/songwriter also found TU the perfect staging ground for a career in arts management. It’s one of the few schools in the Midwest that even offers an arts management degree. “TU internships show you your future while you’re still in school,” he explains. “I’ve worked with arts organizations all around Tulsa. They opened my eyes to the world of arts management.”

BANK OF OKLAHOMA CENTER

With a seating capacity of 19,000+, the new BOK Center in downtown Tulsa ranks 9th in the U.S. and 23rd in the world for arena ticket sales, according to Pollstar, a live music industry tracker. Major stars including Sir Paul McCartney, Britney Spears, Lil Wayne, the Dave Mathews Band, among many others, have played the BOK Center.

LIVE AND WORK

Some 380 high tech firms and 54,000 technology jobs in energy, engineering, telecommunications support, biodiesel fuel, airline services and network operations have transformed Tulsa into what Newsweek calls a “New Frontier” technology city.

GREEN DREAM

Tulsa is located in the heart of Northeastern Oklahoma’s Green Country, home to half of Oklahoma’s state parks.

BRITTANY LEWIS '09 KNEW SHE WAS GOING TO FIT IN AT TU “when I moved in to my room and the people were so friendly – from the volunteers who helped me move to the residence life staff. I felt like everyone cared.” She fell in love with the Collins Fitness Center on a campus visit, she says, “and it only got better from there.” Major facilities investments have added immeasurably to the great campus feeling. “The new student apartments and townhouses, the library renovation and the stadium are all awesome,” says Brittany. “TU really does care about students.”

THINKFUN

LIVING AT TU IS AS MUCH FUN AS IT IS REWARDING.

Great accommodations, NCAA Division I athletics, endless campus events and activities, and that great TU vibe – it adds up to a very satisfying lifestyle.

Highly competitive Golden Hurricane athletic teams keep the national spotlight on the university. Facilities for athletes – and for all students – are second to none. Living options include spacious apartments and fun-filled residence halls with their own unique traditions. Campus life is enriched by 160+ clubs and activities, a diverse student body, great concerts throughout the year and internationally known guest speakers.

TU's national fraternities and sororities pride themselves on leadership and philanthropic service.

DIVERSITY AT TU

With some 500 international students representing 57 countries, TU is a highly diverse learning community. Multicultural student organizations bring the world — and a world of fun and rewarding events — to the TU campus. There are more than 20 student groups providing essential cultural support for African American, Asian American, Hispanic American, Latin American, Middle Eastern American and Native American, as well as international students at TU. And everyone loves the food bazaars and festivals!.

FITNESS FREE FOR ALL

State-of-the-art recreational facilities for all students are available at the 67,000 square foot Collins Fitness Center, including basketball courts, a huge workout area, a suspended indoor track and more. Aerobics, dance, kickboxing, ballet and yoga classes make use of a 3,200 square foot multipurpose room with soundproof walls. After your workout, grab a Starbucks coffee or a smoothie at the café.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Representing the cooperative effort of all students and organizations on campus, the TU Student Association (SA) goes beyond governance to include everything from free legal services and financial management of organizations to planning such events as Homecoming Week, Springfest, concerts and more. SA is charged with allocating funds, recognizing official organizations, maintaining a record of recognized student organizations, imposing rules and guidelines, and facilitating programs and events for the student body. Engaged TU students know they are not members of SA, they are SA.

APARTMENT LIVING

New townhouse villages offer apartment-style living, spacious bedrooms, walk-in closets, living and dining rooms and modern kitchens.

CLASSIC RESIDENCE HALL EXPERIENCE

TU's five traditional residence halls are big on convenience and community. Most freshmen live in Fisher Hall.

WOMEN ROW SMART

In TU's 15th ranked 2009 lightweight eight women's rowing team, five of eight rowers were also National Scholar Finalists.

EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT-ATHLETES

- NCAA Division I Conference USA member in all sports
- Six national championships, frequently nationally ranked
- Since 1995, 38 ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans
- 13 conference championships
- 11 TU student-athletes have earned the Scholar Athlete of the Year award, the top academic honor among Conference USA members

VISIT TULSA

LIFE AT TU IS A MIX of idea-driven academic activity, spirited athletics and a welcoming small college atmosphere with the resources and opportunities of a national research university.

There's one way to see for yourself if TU is the place for you: plan your campus visit today.

You can take a tour, interview with an admission counselor, meet faculty members and sit in on classes. You can even spend the night during one of our special visit programs.

Plan your visit online at www.utulsa.edu/admission/visits

YOUR VISIT YOUR WAY

Programs scheduled throughout the year make it convenient to visit campus when it works for you. Let us know your interests and we'll customize your visit around the places you want to see and the people you'll want to meet.

Be sure to check the online events page (www.utulsa.edu/admission/events) for latest program details and online registration forms.

- JUNIOR VISIT DAY is a special opportunity for juniors to visit campus and learn about TU from admission counselors, faculty and fellow students.
- SENIOR VISIT DAYS are designed for seniors to tour campus, visit with professors, staff and students about all aspects of the TU experience and meet other forward thinking students who are interested in TU.
- "TULSA TIME" programs invite applicants and parents to an overnight campus visit. Activities include tours and special events — and enough time to get a feel for the TU community and explore the city of Tulsa.
- PERSONALIZED TOURS AND VISITS are a TU specialty. Let us know your interests and we'll customize your visit accordingly.
Make arrangements online at www.utulsa.edu/admission/visits.

FEATURED FACILITIES

1 ROXANA ROZSA AND ROBERT EUGENE LORTON PERFORMANCE CENTER

Scheduled to open in Fall 2011, the Roxana Rozsa and Robert Eugene Lorton Performance Center houses a 700-seat performance hall, instrumental and choral rehearsal halls, state-of-the-art classrooms and practice rooms. The 70,000 square foot facility also includes film studios and faculty offices.

2 DONALD W. REYNOLDS CENTER

Cheer on TU men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball in the Reynolds Center. The 138,000 square feet arena seats 8,355 and is also the scene of concerts, job fairs and commencement. Reynolds also houses TU's accredited athletic training program.

3 PHILLIPS HALL

Phillips Hall, home to the School of Art, contains outstanding studios for ceramics, graphic design, painting, printmaking and sculpture as well as a photography lab. The Alexandre Hogue Gallery, Third Floor Design (an advertising and marketing studio), classrooms, offices and more are also located here.

4 TU COLLEGE OF LAW

Take advantage of a rare and valuable on-campus resource: The University of Tulsa College of Law, its faculty, guest lecturers and advisors, and a vast law library.

5 WILLIAM FISHER HALL AND CAFETERIA

Many freshmen choose to live in co-ed Fisher hall, which features a three-story skylight atrium and a central staircase that opens onto all lounge areas. Fisher Hall includes a carpeted study lounge with carrels, a lounge with fireplace and a small kitchen. With its large-screen TV, the first floor lounge is popular for movie nights and sporting events. Fisher Hall cafeteria, offering unlimited servings for breakfast, lunch and dinner all week, serves the best brunch in town on Saturday and Sunday.

6 ALLEN CHAPMAN ACTIVITY CENTER

TU's student union is known as "Ack-Ack" for short. You'll come for the food—there's the Hurricane Hut sports bar, Chick-fil-A, and the Food Court—but you'll soon discover more. The Great Hall welcomes national figures and speakers, such as filmmaker Spike Lee. There's live music and video games. The Student Association offices are located here, and the entire facility offers wireless Internet access. You can buy Golden Hurricane tee shirts, sweats and books here, too.

7 THE "U"

Meet friends between classes, take in bonfires and other events, and enjoy outstanding views of downtown Tulsa on this large grass quad in the heart of campus.

8 COLLINS HALL

Your first stop at TU will be Collins Hall, the stunning focal point of the new south entrance to campus. This signature building houses such key student services as financial aid and admission. New Alumni Association offices and meeting spaces feature displays of university memorabilia. The president and top administrators have offices here.

9 BAYLESS PLAZA

The 7,500-square-foot Bayless Plaza provides a spectacular permanent home for TU's historic Kendall Bell, traditionally rung by graduating seniors after completing their last final exam each spring.

10 MCFARLIN LIBRARY

Offering millions of volumes and access to vast amounts of digital information, newly renovated McFarlin Library has been re-imagined as TU's academic town square. Including a new student commons area, technology labs and electronic classrooms, a café and remodeled reading rooms, McFarlin is also home to the Honors Program and the Office of Nationally Competitive Scholarships. The Special Collections library includes rare American, British, and Irish classics and papers, Native American history and law.

11 H. A. CHAPMAN STADIUM

Chapman Stadium, newly renovated and completely updated, is home to Golden Hurricane football. Facilities include Case Athletic Complex, which offers academic support for athletes, team meeting space, a Letterman's Lounge, and a museum of football history and tradition at TU.

12 KEPLINGER HALL

Home of the College of Engineering and Natural Sciences, Keplinger Hall features collaborative classrooms and state-of-the-art laboratories where advanced science equipment is part of regular undergraduate class and research. TU's prestigious Cyber Corp program, which trains students in computer security, is based in Keplinger.

13 MABEE GYM

Home to TU's women's rowing team, Mabee Gym also houses an Olympic size swimming pool for student use and racquetball courts.

14 HELMERICH HALL

The Collins College of Business is based in Helmrich Hall, also the site of Studio Blue, TU's entrepreneurial think tank, and the Williams Risk Management Center, where students study live data feeds to understand stock activity and trading. A new nonprofit management program prepares socially conscious leaders. The School of Nursing, part of the Collins College, is based in Chapman Hall. Also within the College, exercise and sports science and athletic training are found in the Reynolds Center.

15 KENDALL HALL

The arts and humanities are celebrated in Kendall Hall's theater and performance space, TV and radio station, and seminar-style classrooms.

16 HOLMES STUDENT CENTER

Located in Holmes Student Center, the Office of Student Affairs promotes academic success and global citizenship through co-curricular activities and student development. Programs and services include Greek life, leadership education, multicultural student programs, new student programs and services, student organizations, and university and community services.

18 SORORITY ROW

With 17 fraternities and sororities on campus, TU students find countless ways to get involved in Greek-sponsored community service and leadership projects.

19 JOHN MABEE HALL

20 LOTTIE JANE MABEE HALL

John Mabee Hall for men and Lottie Jane Mabee Hall for women are home to many freshmen and the sources of numerous TU traditions.

21 SHARP CHAPEL

Sharp Chapel is the center of religious activity and spiritual development for the TU community.

22 TYRRELL HALL

Tyrrell Hall is home to the School of Music and Tyrrell Auditorium, the perfect setting for recitals, small concerts and lectures.

23 LORTON HALL

Lorton Hall contains the Center for Student Academic Support, graduate school offices and additional classroom space.

24 CHAPMAN HALL

Chapman Hall, home to the Schools of Nursing and Education, contains classrooms and offices including the dean of Arts and Sciences.

25 APARTMENTS AND TOWNHOUSES

Modern student apartments and townhouse villages cluster around the new south entrance to campus, a popular spot for tailgate parties and campus events.

26 UNIVERSITY APARTMENTS

With six apartment communities on campus, TU students truly have the best of both worlds: independent living along with all the support and convenience of life on campus. TU apartment villages feature full kitchens and shared living space as well as off-street parking, community centers and swimming pools.

27 MICHAEL D. CASE TENNIS CENTER

Site of several NCAA Division I men's tennis championships, the Case Tennis Center is a 64,000 square foot world-class tennis facility with six indoor courts, 12 outdoor courts, seating for 2,000, electronic scoreboards, night lighting, lounge, pro shop and more.

28 DONNA J. HARDESTY SPORTS AND RECREATION COMPLEX

Home to the women's softball program, track and field, and cross country, Hardesty also features a fully outfitted 800 seat ballpark, and soccer and intramural fields.

29 COLLINS FITNESS CENTER

State-of-the-art recreational and fitness facilities for all students are available at the 67,000 square foot Collins Fitness Center, including basketball courts, a huge workout area, a suspended indoor track and more. Aerobics, dance, kickboxing, ballet and yoga classes make use of a 3,200 square foot multipurpose room with soundproof walls. At the café, you can grab a Starbucks coffee or a smoothie and meet friends.

Collins Fitness Center

State-of-the-art recreational and fitness facilities for all students are available at the 67,000 square foot Collins Fitness Center.

APPLY TO TULSA

TU HAS A HIGHLY PERSONALIZED ADMISSION PROCESS.

We use an individualized and holistic approach to evaluating candidates. Academic and extracurricular achievement, school records and personal qualities are carefully considered.

We look for students who can appreciate and take advantage of the exceptional educational and extracurricular opportunities TU offers – students who enjoy challenges, who are intellectually curious and who want to discover more about themselves.

FRESHMAN ADMISSION DEADLINES

Early Action Application For Early Action review based on transcripts through your junior year, your completed application materials must be postmarked by November 1. Non-binding notifications of Early Action admission are mailed on November 22.

Rolling Admission Applications received after November 1 are reviewed under the Rolling Admissions policy.

Academic Scholarships Candidates who wish to be considered for academic scholarships should apply for admission by the priority deadline of February 1. After February 1, applicants will receive academic scholarship consideration based on availability of funding.

Early Action and Rolling Admission applicants have until May 1 to finalize their college decision.

TRANSFER ADMISSION

TU welcomes students who wish to transfer from another college or university. A 2.5 grade point average is required for best consideration for admission.

Transfer students must submit a transfer student application for admission, a $35 nonrefundable application fee, and official transcripts from high school and each college attended. Applicants with fewer than 30 college credit hours must also submit official copies of their SAT or ACT scores. Transfer students with 60 or more credit hours are not required to submit high school transcripts unless requested.

For more information, visit the Transfer Students section within Admission & Financial Aid at our website, www.utulsa.edu.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ADMISSION

With more than 500 students from 57 countries, TU provides a safe and welcoming environment for students from all nations. International students should contact the Office of International Student Services well in advance of the time of entering TU. Deadlines for applications for international students vary, so allow at least six months between the application date and the start of the term in which you want to begin your studies.

For more information, visit the International Students section within Admission & Financial Aid at our website, www.utulsa.edu.

FINANCIAL AID

TU is among the lowest-priced selective, independent institutions in the nation. Approximately 90 percent of all students receive some form of financial assistance in the form of scholarships, grants or loans.

TU offers budget plan assistance to help families manage the cost of their TU education.

SCHOLARSHIPS

TU is committed to attracting excellent and talented students to maintain a diverse and intellectually vibrant student body.

Your completed application must be postmarked by February 1 to meet the priority deadline for academic scholarship consideration. After February 1, consideration for academic scholarships is based on the availability of funding.

Academic scholarships are awarded to those incoming students who have outstanding academic records as demonstrated by their overall high school profile.

Scholarships are renewable for each succeeding school year, contingent upon full-time enrollment and successful academic performance as determined by the University.

The TU Application for Admission and Scholarships serves as the required form for scholarship consideration. A student resume is recommended as a supplement to the forms. Each applicant is strongly encouraged to arrange a personal interview with a member of the admission staff. The interview contributes to the evaluation process for scholarship awards. Some scholarships are based on a student's participation or designation in a particular program and may have additional requirements.

Each admitted applicant is reviewed and considered for all awards for which they might be eligible.

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED BY TU

- Presidential Scholarships
- Honors Program Scholarships
- University Academic Scholarships
- International Baccalaureate Scholarships
- Presbyterian Leadership Scholars Scholarships
- Dean's Scholarships
- Vision Scholarships

PERFORMANCE TALENT AWARDS

Scholarships of various amounts are offered in the areas of music, musical theatre and theatre. Interested students must audition with the appropriate department for consideration.

NEED-BASED ASSISTANCE

Financial need is generally defined as the difference between the cost of attending TU and the amount that the student and the student's family are expected to contribute toward educational costs. The family contribution is determined by a needs analysis based on financial information provided on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Combinations of need-based grants in aid, the Federal Work-Study Program, several college loan programs and TU's merit-based scholarship program may be awarded to assist the student in meeting the cost of college. Financial aid applicants will be considered for all programs for which they are eligible by the Office of Student Financial Services.

APPLYING FOR FINANCIAL AID

Students seeking need-based financial assistance must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and the TU Financial Aid application as soon as possible after January 1.

The FAFSA is available online at www.fafsa.ed.gov and the TU Financial Aid application can be found at www.utulsa.edu/admission/financialaid

For more information, visit the Undergraduate Financial Aid section within Admission & Financial Aid at our website, www.utulsa.edu.

TU ranks among the top 50 private national universities and 88th among all top national universities in U.S. News & World Report's latest edition of America's Best Colleges.
